

Groups for Boys

and Parents

Bullies, Bees, and Boys

Empowering boys to live productive, responsible and respectful lives without getting bullied or bullying those around them.

Bullies, Bees, and Boys

addresses difficult issues facing boys in our society. The sessions focus on helping boys to create lives that are productive, responsible, respectful, and encouraged. The sessions teach boys to treat themselves and others with dignity, empower them to become agents of positive change, and educate them on ways to keep safe.

Bullies, Bees, and Boys works with boys grades K-12, as well as having groups for parents of boys and girls of all ages. A separate sequence of sessions is provided based on age and needs of the group.

Boys are placed in groups with those close in age/grade. The number of sessions can be modified to fit the school semester ranging from 12-17 sessions, retaining those subjects most useful to the group.

A partial list of topics discussed is provided. Please call or email for further information.
